9. The "Singles" Event tournament will be played out until a 1st place winner has been declared, or a deal agreed upon by all finalists has been reached. In the event of a deal agreement, players will be awarded points for the team event based on stack size. Smallest stack receiving highest point to largest stack receiving 1 point for 1st place.
10. The "Team" Event winner will be determined by combining the teammate's scores. Lowest combined team scores will determine the winners. Position eliminated from the tournament equals players score. (Ex: Teammate "A" busts out in 55th and Teammate "B" busts out in 10th = a team score of 65).
11. When playing at the final table, if two (2) or more players are eliminated on the same hand each will receive prize money according to their chip count prior to the elimination hand. When playing hand for hand at different tables, if two (2) players are eliminated on the same hand they will split the prize money involved.
12. Registration will take place starting at 8:00am, up to the starting time for the tournament. Any seats remaining after the start of a tournament may be sold up until the end of the 4th level. Management reserves the right to stop selling seats short of the scheduled start time to ensure an even number of seats at all tables or to resolve staffing issues.
13. Poker management reserves the right to cancel or change the start time of this promotion at any time. Any modification of the rules for this tournament must be approved by the Tribal Gaming Office prior to implementation.
14. All unresolved Patron disputes will be referred to the Tribal Gaming Office in accordance with the Compact Section 14 and the Gila River Gaming Ordinance Section 22.1005.
